

BIOL3650L – Dissection Grading Rubric – Dr. Burnett – Fall 2008

Lab Section: _____

Group members _____, _____
 _____, _____

Criteria	4	3	2	1	0
Quality of dissections <input type="checkbox"/>	Dissected structures are always exposed and intact, with no damage.	Dissected structures are generally visible and intact, but may have small amounts of damage.	Dissected structures are not easily visible or have large amounts of damage.	Structure was either not dissected or was excessively damaged.
Completeness of dissections <input type="checkbox"/>	All required structures were dissected as instructed.	Some required structures were not dissected, or they were not dissected as instructed.	Some required structures were not dissected and they were not dissected as instructed	Many required structures were not dissected or students failed to follow instructions.
Time spent on dissections <input type="checkbox"/>	Group dissected all of the required structures in the time allotted for them.	Group dissected most structures in the allotted time, but some dissections took longer than required.	Group dissected some required structures, but many dissections took longer than required.	Group was unable to complete some dissections.

Dissection 1 Structures: _____

Dissection 2 Structures: _____

Dissection 3 Structures: _____

Dissection 4 Structures: _____