

Call for submissions...

Clayton State University's Student Journal of Literature And Art

CYGNET

Cygnnet accepts fiction, poetry, creative nonfiction, sequential art, translations, and art submissions from Clayton State University students each year between April 15 and November 15.

NEW THIS YEAR: All submissions will be entered to the Cygnnet 2012 Student Contest in Poetry, Fiction, and Creative Nonfiction, unless otherwise specified by the author. The authors of the winning pieces will be invited to read at the Cygnnet launching party in April and will receive a prize.

LITERATURE SUBMISSIONS

Submit TWO typed copies of each piece (12pt, Times New Roman, single spaced) to Ms. Deborah Carey (Arts and Sciences Building, G110).

POETRY: Submit up to three poems (maximum 5 pages).

FICTION: Submit one flash fiction piece or one short short-story (maximum 3000 words).

CREATIVE NONFICTION: Submit one short literary essay (maximum 3000 words).

SEQUENTIAL ART: Submit one piece (maximum 5 pages).

DRAMA: Submit a scene from a play (maximum 6 pages).

TRANSLATION: Submit one poem, flash fiction piece, or one piece of sequential art translated in English from your own work written originally in a foreign language (maximum 2 pages).

Students may submit one piece in each genre. Submitting a particular piece to Cygnnet does not preclude students to submit the same piece to the Stanley Cyrus Awards in Creative Writing.

For more information, contact Dr. Brigitte Byrd at brigittebyrd@clayton.edu

ART SUBMISSIONS

Contact Alan Xie at alanxie@clayton.edu